THREE PHASES OF PROGRAM

1. Mobilization

The MPCR Steering Committee will work to build partnerships throughout the community with resident groups, local businesses, civic organizations, faith-based organizations, and governmental agencies.

2. Data Collection

The MPCR Steering Committee will work in conjunction with the University of Maryland and the Baltimore Neighborhood Indicators Alliance to collect data from McElderry Park residents regarding community issues and topics of concern.

3. Implementation

The MPCR Steering Committee, in conjunction with the Baltimore Neighborhoods Indicator Alliance, will publish a report based on the data collected throughout the data collection phase. This report will serve as the roadmap for the development of community-based programming which will address the issues outlined in the report.

On April 17, 2013, the MPRC launched its official kick-off meeting and began the process of hosting communitywide meetings where residents and stakeholders could discuss community issues and brainstorm possible solutions.

The MPRC is a local Steering Committee designed to assist the Mayor's Office on Criminal Justice with building a coalition of community partners dedicated to addressing issues of public safety within McElderry Park. The coalition will also work to enhance the revitalization efforts currently underway within the McElderry Park community.
